The petition coming on for hearing, upon perusing the Petition and memo of grounds filed in Crl.RC., and upon hearing the arguments of Sri Sricharan Telaprolu, Advocate for the Petitioner, Sri Manikonda Upendra Rao, Advocate for Respondent No.1, and of Public Prosecutor for Respondent No.2, the Court made the following

ORDER:

The appellant was accused in C.C.No.73 of 2015 before the Court of Principal Junior Civil Judge, Chilakaluripet, Guntur District for the offence under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act. Upon conviction in the said case, Criminal Appeal No.548 of 2016 was moved before the Court of XIII Additional District & Sessions Judge, Guntur District at Narasaraopet who had affirmed the order of conviction. Aggrieved by the same, the petitioner has now moved this Court by way of this Criminal Revision Case.

Sri Sricharan Telaprolu, learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the matter has now been compromised between the parties and the agreed amount has already been paid. He further submits that applications have also been filed for compounding the same before this Court. However, due to the ongoing pandemic, the said compromise could not be recorded before this Court. In the meantime, warrants have been issued against the petitioner.

Sri Manikonda Upendra Rao, learned counsel appearing for the complainant agrees that the de facto complainant and the petitioner had arrived at a settlement and the de facto complainant had received an amount of Rs.2,50,000/- from the appellant.

In these circumstances, there shall be suspension of sentence of XIII Additional District & Sessions Judge, Guntur District at Narasaraopet in Criminal Appeal No.548 of 2016, dated 20.05.2020, till further orders
