

HIGH COURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH AT AMARAVATHI

MAIN CASE : W.P.No.8021 of 2024

PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl. No.	Date	ORDER	OFFICE NOTE
6.	31.07.2024	SRS,J Heard Sri J.V. Phaniduth, learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Assistant Government Pleader for Services-IV for respondents 1 to 3; Sri K. Sreedhara Murthy, learned standing counsel for respondent Nos.4 and 5 and Sri R. Venkatesh, learned counsel for respondent Nos.6 to 8. At the hearing, learned standing counsel has drawn the attention of this court to the regular employee details filed at page No.9 of the counter affidavit of respondent No.4, whereby deceased uploaded photos and particulars of his family members. He also drew the attention of this Court to the marriage certificate produced by the deceased before the Corporation. A perusal of the regular employee details discloses that deceased married respondent No.6 in the year 1992 and they were blessed with respondent Nos.7 and 8. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the marriage between the deceased and the petitioner was performed in the year, 2002 and that it is valid marriage. However, a perusal of the documents placed before this Court, would prima facie indicate that even

		if the deceased had contracted marriage with the petitioner, it is only subsisting the first marriage. These questions will be adjudicated by the Civil Court, but not by the this Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner sought time to get instructions from the petitioner as to whether the petitioner wants to proceed with the matter or withdraw the writ petition. Post on 07.08.2024, under the caption. SRS, J lkn
