Contd...2...

ORDER :-

"In certain matters, counters have been filed by the State Government and in some matters counters have been filed by the APPSC. Many of the learned counsels appearing have stated that they have not been served with the counters. Therefore, the learned Government Pleader for Services-I and the Standing counsel for APPSC are directed to ensure that the counters are served on all the learned counsels, who are appearing for the parties in these matters.

For rejoinders, if any, or 'for hearing', list the matters on 20.10.2021 immediately after the vacation in the motion list.

The interim order granted earlier and which are limited in point of time are extended till that date."
