14	20.09.2024	Dr.VRKS,J Sri B.Mutyala Naidu, S/o Sri Atchi Babu was convicted and sentenced for various offences by the trial court and that was confirmed in the appeal by the learned IV Additional District and Sessions Judge, Visakhapatnam. Aggrieved by that, the convict preferred this revision way back in the year 2012. The revision was preferred though a learned counsel. Record would indicate that none has been prosecuting the matter on behalf of the revision petitioner. After noticing the earlier events, this court on 31.07.2024 issued Non Bailable Warrant against the revision petitioner. Today, the warrant was executed and the individual is produced before this court by Sri K.Srinivasa Rao/ SI of Police and Sri K.Prashanth Kumar/ Head Constable of I Town Traffic Police

	Station of Visakhapatnam at 02.30 pm. The revision petitioner is unable to speak and it is stated that he is suffering from paralysis. His son Sri V.Pavan Kumar is in attendance assisting his father. On interaction with them, it is noticed that to engage a new counsel, they are unable to find out the earlier counsels so as to obtain no objection certificate. It is in these circumstances, the revision petitioner is appraised that he is entitled to have a legal aid counsel for which purpose, he could make an application before High Court, Legal Services Committee which would appoint a counsel for the revision petitioner. If such application is moved, the Secretary, High Court, Legal Services Committee should consider the same in accordance with the rules as quickly as possible. In these circumstances, the escorting police are directed to produce the revision petitioner before learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Visakhapatnam (formerly learned Chief
