

HIGH COURT OF ANDHRA PRADESH AT AMARAVATI

MAIN CASE No.: W.P. No.28258 of 2021

PROCEEDING SHEET

Sl. No	DATE	ORDER	Office Note
1.	07.12.2021	CMR, J W.P. No.28258 of 2021 Learned Government Pleader for Home takes notice for respondents 1 and 2 and requests time to file counter-affidavit. Issue notice to respondents 3 and 4 returnable in four (04) weeks. CMR, J I.A.No.1 of 2021 The grievance of the petitioners is that the bank accounts of the petitioners have been freezed and as such, the petitioners find difficulty in carrying on their day-to-day business activities and other activities as they could not operate their respective bank accounts, wherein their money has been held up. Therefore, in the said facts and circumstances of the case, in order to strike a balance between the right of the petitioners to operate their bank accounts relating to their own money and the right of the prosecution to freeze the accounts relating to the money involved in the crime in the process of their investigation, this Court is of the considered view that ends of justice would meet if the petitioners are permitted to operate their bank accounts, except to the extent relating to the money that is involved in the crime. Therefore, in the facts and circumstances of the

		case, the petitioners are permitted to operate their bank accounts, however they shall not withdraw the money involved in this crime which is freezed by the Investigation Officer. The bank authorities, concerned, are directed to permit the petitioners to operate their respective bank accounts and withdraw their money, except the money involved in the crime, which is freezed by the Investigation Officer. CMR, J ARR
