Heard Mr.Ravi, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.A.Prabakaran, learned counsel for private respondents. The private parties are daughter-in-law and in-laws, respectively.

2. One P.Nandakumar, son of the private respondent was married to the petitioner and had passed away on 10.08.2018.

3. Without going into the rival contentions that have been raised and argued, it appears that parties are desirous of settling the matter. The assets in question are:-

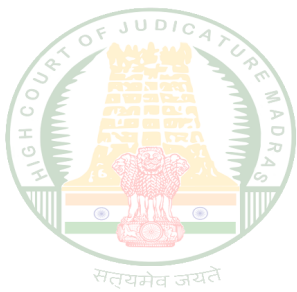

(i) a sum of Rs.38 lakhs (approx) received by the petitioner as terminal benefits from IBM India Pvt. Ltd .

(ii) property situate at Door No.17, Chozhan Street, Muthamuzh Nagar, Pammal, Chennai – 600 075

4. The petitioner agrees that a sum of Rs.12 lakhs would be paid over from the terminal benefits to R3.

5. Learned counsel for R2 and R3 on their behalf conveys that they have no objection for partition of the property at serial number (ii), in accordance with law.

6. Thus, to assist the parties to arrive at the terms of settlement, the matter is referred to Mediation.
