

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JHARKHAND AT RANCHI

Cr. M.P. No.1545 of 2012

Md. Amzad Sheikh & Ors.	....	...	Petitioners
Versus
The State of Jharkhand & Anr.	...	...	Opp. Parties

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE R.R. PRASAD

For the Petitioners	: Mr. Devesh Krishna, Advocate
For the State	: APP

02/08.10.2012: Having heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and learned counsel appearing State, I do not find any illegality with the order taking cognizance and hence, the order taking cognizance never warrants to be interfered with.

However, if the petitioners surrender and pray for bail, the same be disposed of after taking into consideration the submission relating to long drawn dispute in between the parties and also the fact that the police after investigating the case, had submitted final form.
