 For the Respondent Nos.1&2 : Mr. Ratnesh Kumar, Advocate

03/ Dated: 22nd January, 2015
Per Virender Singh, C.J.:

Through the instant petition the petitioner company has thrown challenge to letter/communication No.IV(16)71/Essar/Tech/RD/14-15 dated 15.01.2015 (Annexure-11) issued by Respondent No.2 (Assistant Commissioner, Central Excise Division, Ranchi) to Respondent No.3 (Axis Bank Limited) which was put on hold by us vide our last order dated 21.01.2015 as Mr. Ratnesh Kumar, appearing for Respondent Nos. 1 and 2, wanted to have certain instructions.

Mr. Ratnesh Kumar, after getting requisite instructions from the concerned quarter, makes a statement at the Bar that the aforesaid letter/communication impugned herein, has since been withdrawn.

Statement made by Mr. Ratnesh Kumar at the Bar is taken on record.

Mr. Gadodia states that in view of the aforesaid statement made by Mr. Ratnesh Kumar, representing Respondent Nos. 1 and 2, nothing survives in the instant petition to prosecute it any further at this stage at least.

The petition on hand stands disposed of accordingly.
