(ORDER)

29.06.2021

Neither Petitioners nor counsel present, seemingly the petitioners have lost interest in prosecuting the matter, therefore the writ petition deserves to be dismissed, however, while making such order the court feels it proper to reserve the right of the petitioners to re-agitate the matter if the cause still survives by filing the motion seeking restoration of the writ petition. Writ Petitioners are also at liberty to file representation before the competent authority for seeking consideration and decision. The consideration shall be made and decision taken in accordance with law and the norms governing the subject.
