JUDGMENT

1. Notice to the respondents dispensed with preserving their right to seek re-hearing of this writ petition, if aggrieved by the directions being issued hereunder.

2. The petitioner states that repeated complaints made to the Municipality against certain alleged illegal activities of the third respondent are not being attended to.

Without expressing anything on merits, it is ordered that the second respondent will take up Ext.P5, hear the necessary parties and issue a direction thereon in accordance with law untrammelled by anything stated in this judgment.
