Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASBIR SINGH

Present: Mr.Sarju Puri, Advocate for the petitioner

.....

Jasbir Singh, J.(Oral)

During arguments, it transpires that the final order has already been passed against the petitioner, which is not under challenge in this writ petition.

After arguing for sometime, counsel for the petitioner wishes to withdraw this writ petition with liberty to file a fresh one after giving better particulars to lay challenge to the final order.

Liberty granted.

Dismissed as withdrawn.

It is apprehension of counsel for the petitioner that the authorities will not supply a copy of the order passed, to the petitioner. Mr.A.K.Sharma, Additional Advocate General, Punjab is directed to ensure that if any final order has been passed, the officer concerned should supply a copy of the order to the petitioner within four days from today. Mr.Puri is directed to supply a copy of the writ petition to Mr.Sharma during course of the day.
