Date of decision : 5.12.2018

...

Bindu Chowdhary

.....Petitioner

vs.

Ragbir Chand and another

.....Respondents

Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice H. S. Madaan

Present: Mr. Sanjay Joshi, Advocate for the petitioner.

H. S. Madaan, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the Presiding Officer Mr. Akshdeep Mahajan, Chief Judicial Magistrate-cum-Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Chandigarh, against whom the petitioner had a grouse, has since been transferred to some other place. It being so, the application has become infructuous.

Dismissed as infructuous.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that two applications had been moved in the court of Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Chandigarh, which have not been disposed of so far and the case has been fixed for rebuttal and arguments and appropriate direction be issued to the trial Court in that regard.

It is observed that on petitioner's moving appropriate application before the trial Court in that regard, the same be disposed of in accordance with law.
