UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Having heard Mr. Ravindra Srivastava, learned Senior Advocate, appearing for the petitioners and having gone through the impugned judgment and order(s) passed by the High Court as well as the Appellate Court and the learned trial Court, we see no reason to interfere with the same in exercise of powers under Article 136 of the Constitution of India. The Special Leave Petitions stand dismissed. In addition, it is to be noted that, in the present case, the Civil Suit is of the year 1962 and approximately 60 years had passed and even after 60 years, the parties are still in the Court. At one point of time, the litigation must come to an end and today is the day to come to an end of the litigation.

With this, the Special Leave Petitions stand dismissed on the ground of delay as well as on merits.

Pending applications stand disposed of.
