UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We have perused the reply filed by the seventh respondent. In view of what is asserted in paragraph 18 thereof, by taking the assurance stated therein on record, we find that no case is made out to grant any interim relief against the seventh respondent.

At this stage, the learned counsel appearing for the seventh respondent states that the undertaking given in paragraph 18 will bind the seventh respondent in perpetuity. In view of the statement, we direct deletion of the name of the seventh respondent from the array of parties.

As regards the eighth and the ninth respondents, if the appellant wants to claim any interim relief, it is open for the appellant to file an application.

Our attention is invited to the order dated 19th March, 2024 in Original Application No.98 of 2022. The names of the fifth and the sixth respondents are deleted from the array of parties.

However, this order will not preclude the appellant from challenging the said order dated 19th March, 2024 in accordance with law.
