O R D E R

As per office report, the respondent has refused to accept service of notice.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is apologized and states that a wrong statement was made that the matter can be resolved and settled in case there is an interaction between the parties or through mediation.

It is stated that the petitioner had suffered physical injury consequent to domestic violence and had, thereupon, undergone a medical procedure/treatment.

We grant time two weeks' time to the learned counsel for the petitioner to file medical paper on record stating whether the petitioner is in a position to travel.

Re-list in the month of January, 2023.
