O R D E R

It is submitted by Mr.Neeraj K.Jain, learned senior counsel for the petitioners that there was no need for circulating a letter by the caveator/respondent, for, the point raised in this special leave petition is totally different than the order passed by this Court on 29.02.2016 in SLP(C)No.4384/2016, whereby this Court has only dismissed the special leave petition in limine. To elaborate, by this dismissal, the decree passed by the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh in RSA No.952/1989 has been affirmed. Whereas, in the present petition, the issue would be regarding the justifiability of the executability of the decree including the issue of limitation. Learned counsel for the parties are required to come ready to argue the matter on 26.03.2018.

Call on the date fixed.
