               UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following ORDER
  Heard learned counsel for the parties.
  I.A.No. 4 Of 2016 in Civil Appeal No. 2268 of 2011 has been filed on behalf of the seven applicants. They were writ petitioners before the Allahabad High Court when they were working in the State of U.P. but later their services fell within the newly created State
  Uttarakhand and hence their writ petitions are presently still pending before the Uttarakhand High Court at Nanital.
  They have prayed for impleadment in Civil Appeal No.
  2268 of 2011 on the ground that they stand footing as the appellants.
  There is no opposition to the aforesaid prayer.
  Hence I.A. No. 4 of 2016 for intervention is allowed.
  We make it clear that this order is confined to these four matters which cover the temporary Class employees of L.I.C. recruited for working in the States of employees of L.I.C. recruited for working in the States of U.P. and Uttarakhand. The other matters already stand de-tagged from some other matters.

It is not necessary to advert to various orders passed in these matters earlier but we may usefully which read as under:

   ⬠S SLP(C)NO.8748/2011, C.A. Nos.2268/2011, 2571/2013 & 4629/2011
   Heard counsel on either side.
   It is the common case of the parties that the petitioners/appellants have put in than 10 years of continuing service. basis of the decision of this Court Secretary, State of Karnataka v. Uma Devi (3) & Others reported in (2006) 4 SCC 1, paragraph 53, the Management should have examined the claim of the petitioners/appellants for regularization as one-time measure. This exercise, it is stated, has not been done. We direct the respondent to do that exercise within eights weeks.

   6367-6368/2010
   After hearing the counsel at length, we are inclined to give directions to the LIC to explore the possibility of framing a scheme that those already covered by the Industrial award (those who are covered by the award, whether working or not), so as to absorb them in service.
  LIC to also examine whether these persons may be exempted from writing this test also.

   C.A.No.2571/2013 and C.A.No.4629/2011
   This Court vide its order dated 05.02.2014 granted eight weeks time to the respondent-Life Insurance Corporation of India to formulate a scheme as per what was envisaged in paragraph 53 of the judgment of this Court in Secretary, State of Karnataka vs. Uma Devi (3) & Ors. (2006) 4 SCC 1. Learned counsel for the respondents has endeavoured to take us to a scheme that was prevalent in 1992 on the b of the decision of this Court in State of scheme that was prevalent in 1992 on the basis Haryana Vs. Piara Singh (1992) 4 SCC 118. That exercise is entirely futile after the pronouncement of judgment in Uma Devi's case (supra). We were, therefore, inclined to direct the presence of the Chairman of Life Insurance Corporation of India to appear on the next date of hearing. However, the learned Attorney General has assured us that necessary action shall be taken within six weeks from today. On this assurance, we adjourn these cases.

List for consideration on 05.11.2014.

These appeals/petition are de-taged from of hearing. However, the learned Attorney General has assured us that necessary action shall be taken within six weeks from today. On These appeals/petition are de-taged from other appeals which related to the industrial award passed against the respondents in respect of other workmen.

  (iii) They may have to appear in examination along with open market candidates,
  if circumstances, so demand.
   (iv) The successful candidates shall be for interview. Only those persons, who successful in the interview, shall be appointed and posted as Assistants anywhere in the Zone, after they clear pre-recruitment medical examination.
   (v) Those who are recruited shall be governed by the rules as applicable to the employees of the Corporation and they shall not be entitled to claim any other benefit regarding their past service rendered as temporary employees.

(vi) By accepting the scheme, any other cases filed by the petitioners in the Supreme Court and/or in other High Court/s or any other court will be treated as closed.

(vii) Such of those petitioners who do not apply or are not successful shall cases to be in the Corporation and they shall not be entitled or are not successful shall cease to Considering the long length of service rendered by the appellants in temporary capacity, this Court does not approve the part of the Scheme where under the appellants have to appear in written examination along with open market candidates (Clause 3 of the Scheme).

Fortunately Mr. Kailash Vasudev, learned ser counsel, on instructions, submitted that L.I.C. shall he a limited written examination only for the the intervenors.

We make it clear that the limited examination will not include candidates from the open market and confined only to the appellants /writ petits

   We have noted an order of this Court dated 7 th February, 1996 passed in Civil Appeal No. 1790 of 1989 (The Management of the Life Insurance Vs. Their workmen). In that order this Court permitted the L.I.C. to hold a test if there was no power to exempt the class IV employees from the test and interview but observed as follows: \hat{a} SWe direct the Management to exempt concerned Class IV Employees from the test and interview if the Management has power to do so under the regulations/instructions governing their conditions of service. In case Management has no such power, we have no doubt in our mind that the test which shall be prescribed for these workmen shall be of a lessor standard than the one which has been prescribed under the two circulars mentioned prescribed under the two circulars mentioned in the compromise. We have further no doubt that simply because these workmen have approached the Court. The Management shall not take any vindictive attitude towards them.

In somewhat similar circumstances, an order came to January, 2011 in C.A.Nos.

953-968 of 2005 (LIC of India and Anr. Etc. Vs. D.V. Anil Kumar Etc.) That matter related to a Scheme for absorption of class IV employees and this Court accepted the Scheme as enumerated in the affidavit of the LIC for holding one time limited examination for the temporary employees who were working in the LIC for more than five years and who had possessed minimum eligible qualification and age as prescribed at the relevant time of their entry into LIC of India. For this purpose, LIC of India was directed to
