The petitioner was denied of anticipatory bail; he is accused of committing offence under Section 306 IPC. Pursuant to notice issued, the State has filed its counter affidavit submitting that the petitioner has not been arrayed as an accused in the chalan filed before the Court.

Having regard to this development, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner ought to be enlarged on bail. Petitioner is directed to be released on bail subject to such conditions the Trial Court may deem appropriate to impose.
