Ld. Counsel for the petitioner submits that since notices were issued upon all the unserved respondents by registered post A.D. and since no report is available in respect of their service, the service should be deemed to be complete and the matter should be processed for listing before the Hon'ble Court.

Ld. counsel appearing for the respondents affirmed the issue. Having considered the material placed before this Court as well as the office report, the prayer stands refused and the Office is directed to seek the report from the postal authority in respect of the postal articles carrying the notices upon respondent Nos.1, 9, 10, 13, 21, 26, 38, 39, 44, 46, 47, 50, 55, 61, 67, 72 and 80, which was issued through registered post A.D., and in respect of which no status report is available as per the office report.
