UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts of these cases, we do not find any ground to interfere with the impugned order under Article 136 of the Constitution of India. However, keeping in view the fact that the petitioners are required to vacate the premises in question, for which the High Court has granted time till 31.03.2022, which period has already expired, we are of the opinion that the time to vacate the premises in question be extended for a further period.

Accordingly, while dismissing these petitions, we provide that the petitioners be permitted to occupy the premises in question till 30.06.2022. In case, petitioners do not vacate the premises in question voluntarily within the stipulated time, the respondent(s) shall have liberty to forcibly evict them.

The special leave petitions are, accordingly, dismissed.

Pending application(s), if any, stands disposed of.
