Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has stated at the Bar that, during the pendency of the present proceedings, the petitioner has completed his tenure and therefore, the present Special Leave Petition has become infructuous.

Learned counsel appearing for the respondent, however, has requested to make suitable observation that so long as the impugned judgment and order passed by the High Court is concerned, the same stands.

In view of the above, the present SLP is dismissed/disposed of as having become infructuous as stated on behalf of the petitioner. Meaning thereby, the impugned judgment and order passed by the High Court stands.

Pending applications stand disposed of.
