Respondent(s)

O R D E R

We have perused the pleadings. The payments have been made in compliance of the Order though learned counsel for the petitioner state that there may be some discrepancy in the amount remitted. Insofar that is concerned, the petitioner may write to the respondents pointing out the details and the respondents should make sure that if there is any discrepancy, the amount is paid.

That leaves us with seven cases where the petitioner(s) have not updated their records which is a prerequisite for disbursement of the pension. On the said seven persons completing their records, petition be accordingly remitted with arrears within a period of one month from their updation of record.

The contempt petition accordingly stands closed.

Pending applications stand disposed of.
