

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

Civil Appeal No 4090 of 2022

M/s Diamond Stone Crushers & Anr

.... Appellant(s)

Versus

Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir & Ors

....Respondent(s)

ORDER

- 1 The grievance of the appellants is that the impugned order of the National Green Tribunal<sup>1</sup> dated 12 April 2022 issuing an ad interim direction that the stone crushers shall not be permitted to operate in the absence of requisite pollution prevention and control systems was passed without hearing the appellants.
- 2 The appellants would be at liberty to move the NGT for modification of the impugned order since no notice was issued before the impugned order was passed. We would expect the NGT to hear the appellants on the application for modification of the interim order on such grounds as are permissible in law.
- 3 The appeal is accordingly disposed of.

1 “NGT”

4 Pending application, if any, stands disposed of.
