Delay condoned.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the judgment of the High Court. The special leave petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.

Both parties are directed to appear before the concerned trial Court on 01.09.2023 without expecting any separate notice from the said court. It is needless to observe that since this is a matter which has been remanded by the High Court, with the cooperation of both sides, the trial court shall expedite disposal of the suit.
