concerning maintainability of the complaint dated 15th July, 2009, relating to symbols and statues. We are informed that the matter has been argued threadbare on the aspect of maintainability on 7th April, 2010. If, on the question of maintainability, the Election Commission wants further hearing, notice may be given. However, the decision shall be given by the Election Commission within a period of three months.

Place the writ petition on receipt of the decision of the Election Commission.
