O R D E R

We have heard learned counsel for the parties. In the peculiar circumstances of this case, we are of the opinion that the parties should maintain status quo during the pendency of the suit.

We direct the Trial Court to decide the suit expeditiously. We make it clear that the suit may be decided independently and in accordance with law and without being influenced by the status quo order passed by us today.

Order of status quo shall replace the impugned order passed by the High Court.

Special Leave Petition is disposed of accordingly.
