UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

Delay condoned.

While we are not inclined to interfere with the impugned order, noticing the fact that the petitioner's mother was a party to the suit in which settlement was arrived at between the legal representatives of V. Muthusamy Chettair and hence the Special

Leave Petitions are dismissed.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioners states that four months time may be granted to the petitioners to vacate the subject premises subject to his filing the usual undertaking. The learned counsel for the petitioners also states that petitioners undertake to pay arrears of rent and will continue to pay rent which would be treated as damages.

Taking the statement on record, we grant four months' time to the petitioners to vacate the premises subject to furnishing of the usual undertaking. The petitioners would be bound by the statement made by the learned counsel before us for payment of rent/damages.

Pending application(s) shall stand disposed of.
