Reason:

Resettlement Act, 2013.

The learned Solicitor General seeks some time for making the calculation and depositing the amount. In the peculiar facts of this case, we permit the State to make the deposit before the High Court so that the High Court would be in a position to take a final call on the inter se disputes, as and when the request is made for withdrawal.

Though the Solicitor General prays for three months' time to make the deposit, we are not inclined to grant that much time in the peculiar facts of the case. Six weeks' time is granted to deposit the amount.

Personal attendance of the petitioner before the High Court is dispensed with.

The Special Leave Petition is disposed of with the above clarifications.
