of 2024.

Learned counsel for the petitioner (Kanwar Singh) states that, although, the petitioner has diligently pursued and filed the present petition, however, in the meantime, the respondents have forcibly dispossessed the petitioner and have locked the premises in question. The petitioner is on streets.

There are number of cases of similar nature pending before this Court wherein possession has not been taken and status quo order is operating, protecting the interest of the petitioners-occupants.

In that view of the matter, we provide that in the present case, if the petitioner (Kanwar Singh) has been dispossessed after the order dated 24.07.2024 of the High Court, the respondents would restore the possession to the petitioner within a week from today.
