Hon'ble Ajay Bhanot, J.

Shri Mahendra Pratap, learned counsel for the petitioners contends that the petitioners had appeared in the practical examination conducted in the B.Ed. Course, Academic Session 2021-22. However, the marks obtained by the petitioners were not sent by the institution to the University.

It is contended that the institution had asked the students to deposit the fee for the whole year and appear in the capacity of ex-students. Prima facie this appears to be an act of blackmail.

The Registrar, Chhtrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur shall personally conduct an enquiry into the matter and submit a report.

The Registrar, Chhtrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur shall file an affidavit by the next date fixed.

Put up this matter on 26.04.2023 peremptorily in the list of fresh cases in the top ten cases.
